DAY AFTER CHRISTMAS

The McGregor Motion Will Be Argued.

SOME SENSATIONAL CHARGES

Made by the Attorneys in Court This Morning—The Defense Said They Could Not See Alma Walters, and the Prosecution Claimed She Had Been Announced—The Court Orders an Interview.

Special to the NEWS REVIEW.

LISBON, Dec. 15.—The motion for the new trial in the case of Jesse Mc-Gregor was argued this morning.

Hon. R. W. Tayler made the statement for the defense, saying that they had expected certain affidavits, which they were unable to obtain. "For some reason," he said, "the state had in custody a witness which they are secretly, and refuse us the opportunity of conferring with her. Only on one occasion have we been allowed to talk with her and then when Sheriff Lodge was present. We are positive that she possesses knowledge which she has not given, and when she was on the stand we were not free to ask her. Since the conclusion of the trial she has at various times made statements varying from those made on the stand, and in my mind there is no doubt that she and her companion, Harvey Morrison, were in a measure responsible for the death of Lizzie Ewing, and personal fear, or a belief that something reflecting on her has kept her from telling all she otherwise would have told. Mr. Mc-Gregor and I sought an interview with her, and would have dealt honorably with her, but she refused. We simply asked a free and voluntary affidavit of what she said when out of our and the state's presence, but we failed. In Pittsburgh, last week, she told Mr. Smith freely and voluntarily that she could have testified differ-ently although what she had said was true. She refused to make an affidavit because the state, she said, had so requested. This statement, I believe, will put a different light on a statement, which, although true, was told as toned down and presented in a mild form. I was absent yesterday, but all the efforts of Mr. Smith failed to find this witness until the eleventh hour, when Prosecutor Speaker came and told us that we could in his presence talk to her. Such generosity we do not recognize, reflecting, as it does, upon our professional honor, that we could not be trusted with their witness, whom we claim we had a right to see. If her testimony is so unreliable that our influence might change it, what kind of a witness is she? Therefore until we can get from her the affidavits we desire we ask a postponement in the argument of this motion."

Prosecutor Speaker followed with the assertion that the statement of the defense could only come from ignorance. "The explanation I can easily give. Alma Walters had for months from the time she has been bound over in this case been badgered by the defense through efforts to influence and coerce her, and get her out of the way of the prosecution. Time and time again she has been tempted with money and efforts have been made to get her under the influence of liquor, and on this account we have been compelled to adopt the course toward this witness. When she was subpoenaed to appear before the grand jury Mrs. Shultz, and other members of the ac-cused's family marked the course she was to follow. They endeavored to prevent her appearance, but urged that she send a statement that she was too ill to appear, and if asked the doctor's name to say that she had forgotten it. And she was to evade all efforts of the sheriff to have her come to the trial.
Time and again she had been given money by the defense, and on one occasion a letter came to her from Mrs.
Shultz when she was in the presence of the sheriff. Mrs. Shultz asked Alma Walters to visit at her home in Pittsburgh where she went and was given liquor with the view to get her under the influence, and an effort was made to compel her to make a statement when she was in this condition. We have done nothing but keep an eye on her, and that at her special request.
Last week in Pittsburgh representatives of the defense were ordered from the house when they called to see her. We understand they attempted to get an affidavit from her as to statements made in a hotel in this place on one occasion after they had plied her with liquor, and we brought her here to meet such. She told me she would not talk with the defense alone when I told her that P. M.

Smith wanted to see her. I have not objected to them interviewing her, but have simply acted on her request as she complained of being worried and badgered by them."

Attorney Smith said in reply: "I know nothing concerning Alma Walters being kept from the grand jury, but I agree with the prosecutor that the recital of details of the manner in which this witness has been treated would be unpalatable to both sides. At the time of the McGregor arrest I talked with Alma Walters, and she gave me a full statement of her knowledge of the case as she gave it on the witness stand. In our various consultations our only fear was that the state would not put her on the stand. When she left the stand I feared she would leave town, and cause a second subpoena to be served on her which she at first refused saying she would have nothing to do with the defense. When the case was over she did tell some things not told on the stand, and thinking that we could obtain an affidavit from her. Mr. Tayler and I arranged to go to Pittsburgh last week.
Mr. Tayler could not go, and I with two witnesses called on her. She said that under no circumstances would she sign her name to any paper as the sheriff had been to see her, and she did this at his request. She said she would willingly swear to what she had said at the hotel, but she would sign no paper as she was afraid of the prosecution. We parted on the best of terms, and I was not ordered out of the house.
She told me that she was coming to Lisbon to hear the motion for a new trial and offered to come with me.
Sheriff Lodge met her at the train on Thursday night, and took her to the hotel where a representative of the defense was denied an interview by the proprietor who said he was acting under orders. I went to Sheriff Lodge, and he told me that I must find her before I talked with her, and he would only tell under instructions from the prosecutor. Mr. Tayler and I decided not to accept Mr. Speaker's offer yesterday, as I wanted a disinterested party and not an officer of the law present."

Prosecutor Speaker hereupon expressed a willingness to accede to the request when the court made his presence known by saying that he regretted the trouble, but foresaw it from the first. Counsel for the defense had told him in the presence of the prosecution that they wanted an interview with the witness but were refused.
The court told the prosecutor that he must have good reasons for this,
and he was lead to believe that they existed. The witness was to be informed that counsel for the defense were upright and honorable men, and it did not matter what had been done by Mc-Gregor's relatives she should remember this. The defense should see the witness, and if she was such that she could not be trusted the state should not depend on her for conviction.
He dwelt at length on the manner in which Alma Walters had been treated during the trial, always leaving the court room and appearing on the street with the sheriff. If she was reputable and her evidence right this was unnecessary as she could not suffer by an interview. He ordered Sheriff Lodge to conduct the defense to Alma Walters, and tell her that it was proper to talk to them and sign a paper. The affidavits of the defense must be filed by next Thursday, and of the prosecution on the Monday following. The argument of the motion will be heard the day after Christmas.

The Concert.
A magnificent audience filled the Grand last night when Black Patti sang, and they were not disappointed if they expected to find in her a wonder. To a voice of natural sweetness is added careful training; the result being an ability which the audience was not slow in recognizing. Again and again she was compelled to respond to enthusiastic applause, each succeeding number being better than the first. The company is made up of excellent musicians, all of whom fill well the parts assigned.

A Bad Fall.
Mrs. Jethro Manley, wife of Squire Manley, slipped on a banana peel in the Diamond this morning and fell, injuring her left shoulder and fracturing the collar bone. She luckily walked home and Doctor Bailey was called. She is resting easy this afternoon.

Delayed the Hearing.
The hearing of the Steubenville Pottery company, charged with breaking the contract labor law, was not reached in the United States court at Columbus on Thursday, because of a trial which was not completed.

A HOME FOR THE SICK

Physicians Want a City Hospital.

A MOVE ALREADY STARTED

The Benefits of Such an Institution Would be Many, and There Are People Who Would Gladly Contribute to the Cause—No Tangible Form Yet.

There are people in this city who believe that a hospital is among the crying needs of the present, and some of the more enterprising have started a movement which may result in the establishment of such an institution.

Although but little has been given to the public, and only a favored few are permitted to know anything about the matter just now, it appears that the vigorous ones are already preparing plans and arranging for a canvass which will result in the construction of a commodious building and the treatment of people who are not in condition to be treated at their own homes. There have been whispers of the project for some time, but nothing could be obtained until yesterday afternoon when one of the foremost physicians in the city mentioned the matter to a representative of the NEWS REVIEW. He favors the move, and is enthusiastic in the cause, hoping that the general public will take to it as kindly as do the medical men who have been talking it over among themselves, and discussing the best means for the founding and maintenance of the institution. No definite plan has yet been formed, he said, but the men at the head of the project proposed to have it moving before a great while. It will require some time to do all these things properly, but they can be done and done in the right way if East Liverpool comes to the front, with its customary enterprise and energy, tumbling over obstacles as they appear, and surmounting every difficulty in the way.

The arguments in favor of an institution of this character are as many as the needs of such an institution, and when the move is commenced it will have the earnest and heartly support of the NEWS REVIEW from its inception. There is no hospital nearer the city than those in Pittsburgh, and many serious cases which should have careful attention in an institution where the appointments are perfect must of necessity be attended to here at home.
Physicians urge that this being surrounded by manufacturing towns, the injured from those places would contribute to the support of the hospital.
Another argument in favor of the place is the sick of our own city who could thus be afforded better attention and treatment. One reason why the projectors would like to see a hospital here is the prestige which it would give the city, which is so far in advance of its neighbors in all other things. Many towns in Ohio of more importance than East Liverpool have not the enterprise and push to get what they need, while our city usually decides upon a plan and carries it out without the loss of a great deal of time. And it is believed that the hospital can be secured in this way, and without a great loss of time.
Just what the building will cost and what amount will be required to keep it in operation are questions upon which there can be no decision until the matter assumes more form than it at present has. The NEWS REVIEW has faith to believe when once well started it will soon be booming along at a commendable rate.

A Mean Thief.
Among the articles left in the possession of the Ladies' auxiliary at the close of the late entertainment at the rink were 10 cans of fruit. These were stored away in the Young Men's Christian association rooms, with the expectation that they would be disposed of at the bazaar now in progress. Some mean sneak thief appropriated them, however, and the ladies are just that much out of pocket. Some good guessers among the members believe that they have located the thief, and he may yet find that he is not so cunning as he imagines himself to be, and he may yet pay dearly for the stolen fruit.

Unprofessional Conduct.
When the case of the NEWS REVIEW against Hulmes came for trial in common pleas court Thursday of this week, the reverend attorney made for himself an unsavory reputation when J. H. Brooks, counsel for the plaintiff, asked to have it continued until his witnesses could arrive. Seeing that his only chance for winning was in an unprofessional refusal, the "reverend"

demanding that the case go on, and of course he won, since there was no defense. In contrast to this was the action of Judge Moore, who waited for his opponent to come when he might have demanded trial. He explained to the court that he had no desire to be unprofessional, and as this incident occurred immediately after the other, the rebuke was seen by all. The conduct of the "reverend" was the talk of the court house. Poor fellow.

JUROR BEARDMORE

Tells the Story of the Ballots in the Mc-Gregor Trial.

The sensational charges made by Doctor McFarland, of Wellsville, against William Beardmore, a juror in the McGregor trial, have fallen flat.

When it became evident that a statement to the effect that Beardmore had said on the day Lizzie Ewing's body was found that "there was enough evidence to hang McGregor," would be used in an effort to secure a new trial, an investigation was made.
Prosecutor Speaker sent Attorney Wells to Beardmore's house in this city yesterday, and the latter made affidavit that the story was untrue.
In connection with this, Mr. Beardmore gave some interesting news regarding the jury after they had retired. He said that an informal ballot was taken and it resulted in 11 voting "guilty," and one "not guilty." Beardmore voted "not guilty," and afterward told the jury that he had done so. The second ballot resulted: First degree, four; second degree, six; manslaughter, two.
Mr. Beardmore casting one of the last two votes. The third ballot was eight for first and four for second, and the final ballot, taken by each juror answering to his name, resulted in all voting for second degree. An agreement was made to never make the ballots known, and Mr. Beardmore desires it stated that had it not been to vindicate himself he would have remained silent.

PUNISH THEM.

Give the Names When Detected and Kill the Practice.

EDITOR NEWS REVIEW.—Some of our merchants are very much to blame for their course of procedure respecting shoplifters. To my knowledge certain business men in our city have caught these contemptible sneak thieves in the very act, red handed, with the stolen articles still in their possession, with witnesses present who were willing to swear that they witnessed the theft, and yet the guilty party was allowed to go unpunished, simply because the merchant did not wish to be troubled with a petty law suit, or else the friends and relatives of the thief were influential, and punishment of the offender might result in loss of trade.
Let our merchants but form a combination for the prosecution of all offenders of this character, pledge themselves to stand by one another through thick and thin, keep this pledge to the letter, and hew away, no matter where the chips may fall, and shoplifting will become an unknown feature in East Liverpool. If our merchants condone the offense, and let the culprits go free, then they alone are to blame for the mass of thieving being done.

OSERVER.

On the River.

The river is going down but there is still enough water to float all the boats traveling. The boats for tomorrow to Pittsburgh are the Keystone State, Bedford, Lizzie Bay and the Ben Hur. The Courier is due down for Parkersburg early in the morning.
Four tons of coal went down last night and three tons of empties passed up.

Some People Object.

Street assessments are falling due, and a monstrous kick comes from the people who are compelled to pay.
They cannot understand just why the taxes are so heavy, but they forget that payment has never been made for the paving of Locust alley, Seventh street and Walnut street. Truth is that the assessments should have been paid last year.

Installing a Pastor.

Rev. S. B. McCormick, who recently went from Pittsburgh to Omaha to take charge of a church was, according to a special to the Dispatch, given a cordial greeting by the people. He will be installed tomorrow by Rev. A.
B. Marshall, of the First Presbyterian church, Des Moines, Iowa.

Forty Rabbits.

John McMillin returned this morning from West Virginia where he has been hunting for several days. With him came 40 rabbits, the result of his efforts to capture game.

WILL PAY THE BILLS

So Says the Court, and Council Will Obey.

BOARD OF HEALTH A WINNER

Mr. Owens Says It Was All Out and Dried Anyhow, But an Eye Will Be Kept on the Board in the Future—No Little Cost.

The war is ended. The court says council must pay the board of health bills, and of course the cash will be forthcoming. But the decision is not satisfactory by any means, and protests are still numerous.

Mr. Owens said today that it was all out and dried, and it made little difference. Council, he thought, made a mistake in not paying some of the bills, but those of Henry Chambers and Nightsoiler Schmidt should never be paid.
"As far as the mandamus proceedings are concerned," said Mr. Owens, "the facts in the case were not laid before the court as they should have been.
The petition simply said we refused and did not tell why. We may have to pay those bills, but it will put an end to one half of this business of the board of health. There will be no special meeting of council that I know of, although I would call one if I had the authority."

The costs in the case will amount to about $75 which means $15 for each councilman if they have to pay the amount from their own pockets.
Solicitor Clark said today that the board would not insist on this being done, and unless some taxpayer objected it would come from the city purse. Messrs. Kent and Horwell voted nay, and President Berg being absent, was of course not liable. Mr. Chambers has always borne the reputation of an honest man and a good citizen and his intentions were undoubtedly good. No charges, in the opinion of the solicitor, would stand against him.

ROSE CASE ENDED.

There Will be no More Sensation—It is Done.

As was predicted in the NEWS REVIEW last night, the Rose case is relegated to oblivion, in so far as legal proceedings are concerned. Rumor, apparently authentic, has it that mutual concessions were made on the part of prosecution and defense. For the sake of common decency, as well as for the sake of deeply interested innocent parties, this is the best conclusion that could possibly have been reached. The NEWS REVIEW regrets that as much of the testimony as was given was published in yesterday's issue, and full care shall be taken in the future that all news even if it be in the shape of testimony adduced at court, shall be couched in such language as cannot be objected to by any father or mother or heads of families. The aim of the NEWS REVIEW is to publish a clean family paper, and not a trashy, sensational sheet, catering to an element which is never composed of good and trustworthy citizens.

Seriously Ill.

Mrs. William H. Vodrey, of Robinson street, was taken severely ill last night necessitating the calling in of a physician.

CARLISLE'S PLAN A GO.

Democrat Committeemen De-

FULL COMMITTEE MEETS TONIGHT.

The House Committee on Rules Promises

WASHINGTON, Dec. 15.—The Democratic members of the banking and currency committee, at an executive meeting, decided to report the Carlisle bill without amendment. The full committee will hold an executive session tonight and it is expected that a report will be ordered on the bill before the meeting adjourns. All Democratic members of the committee were present at the executive meeting and Secretary

Carlisle also attended. There were a number of questions asked the secretary regarding certain features of the bill by members who still had some misgivings about the advisability of passing such a measure. The secretary was questioned mainly on the subject of the parliamentary procedure with the bill after it gets before the house.

The committee on rules has promised a rule covering everything that the banking and currency committee may require and giving the bill right of way over everything else. The rule governing the procedure has not been prepared, but it will probably provide for consideration of the bill in committee of the whole and will allow a certain number of amendments to be offered and voted upon as well as a substitute, with possibly amendments to the substitute.

The Democrat members did not find themselves agreeing with each other in regard to the bill. In fact several of them remarked that it was a bill that did not satisfy anyone, but a compromise measure, while all agreed that something must be done with the currency problem at once.

It is understood that Representative

Bland has given up all hope of getting his free coinage bill out of his committee, and has determined to offer his bill as an amendment to the Carlisle bill in the house. If it is declared not to be germane, he will appeal from the decision, giving the house an opportunity to vote on the proposition.

TURKEY IS DISPLEASED.

Refuses to Accept an Armenian Commissioner on Our Terms.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 15.—The United States will take no part in the investigation in the Armenian outrages. Finding that the limitations imposed by President Cleveland and upon the functions of United States Consul Jewett were such as to prevent his joint action with the representatives of the other finished their labors. It is understood that they have practically drafted a new bill, differing in so many material features from the Springer bill, as to entirely remodel that measure. A prominent feature will certainly be a provision for the incorporation of labor unions, thus increasing their responsibility.

It is also believed that they have recommended that quasi public corporations, such as railroads, which have exercised rights of eminent domain, shall be forced to submit to arbitration, while it shall be optional with labor unions to do so.

The House Session.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 15.—The time of the house was consumed with debate on the pension appropriation bill and, although it abounded in charges and counter charges, it lacked interesting detail. The bill carries $141,381,570 and was passed without amendment. The Hitt resolution of inquiry calling on the secretary of state for the correspondence relating to the payment of $125,-

000 on the bill in connection with the furl controversy was adopted. The closing session was devoted to the consideration of private pension bills and the house adjourned over until Monday.

Bills Opened Today.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 15.—Some years ago congress delegated to the secretary of state the duty of selecting the most appropriate means of marking Washington's birthplace at Wakefield, Va.,

75 miles below this city, on the Potomac river, and $11,000 was appropriated for the purpose. The movement has been delayed owing to the absence of facilities for the transportation of material, but the completion of a wharf by the government near the site supplies this want, and the proposals were opened today.

DUN'S TRADE REVIEW.

An Increase in Earnings and Number of Men Employed Reported.

NEW YORK, Dec. 15.—R. G. Dun & Co.'s Weekly Review of Trade today says: Dun's Review is enabled, by the kindness of several thousand manufacturers, who have forwarded statements of their payrolls for November, this year, in 1898 and in 1897, to make a very encouraging comparison of earnings for that month, which shows an increase in total payments of 15.2 per cent over last year, but a decrease of 18.3 per cent in comparison with 1892.

A statement of hands employed shows that in the same establishments 10.2 per cent more hands were employed than a year ago, but 8.6 per cent less than in 1892. The average of earnings for over 250,000 is 4 per cent larger than in 1893, but 14.1-2 per cent less than in 1892, and this statement takes no account of hours of work in the months compared, or of the establishments not working at all this year. In some of the industries more hands are at work than in 1892, but in others the decrease is large.

Blitz Arraigned in Court.
MINNEAPOLIS, Dec. 15.—Clans A. Blizt has been arraigned in the district court under the grand jury indictment charging him with the murder of Catherine Gling. He looked 20 years older than when first arrested. He brought his Bible into court and clung to it tightly all through the proceedings, as if it were his only hope. His eyes were bloodshot and restless, his hair disheveled and his whole appearance disquieting. The plea was deferred, but it is understood he will plead guilty and throw himself on the mercy of the court.

Heavy Damage Suit Entered.
PITTSBURGH, Dec. 15.—A heavy damage suit has been entered against the Carnegie Steel company, Charlotte M. George wants $30,000 for the death of her husband. The latter was employed at the Homestead works during the strike of 1892. He was compelled to eat at restaurant No. 4, and it is alleged he got some of the poisoned food furnished to the employees. He took sick and died on Sept. 27, 1892. The plaintiff alleges the defendant company knew the food was being poisoned and negligently allowed it to be done.

Hall Reconvenes Court.
MIDDLETOWN, Ky., Dec. 15.—Circuit Judge W. L. Hall, who was driven out of the courthouse at Hazard, Perry county, because he ordered Fields and Atkins, the murderers of County Judge Combs to jail, has reconvened court at Hazard unmolested. Fields and Atkins are thought to have fled the country. Colonel Gaither will reach Hazard not later than Sunday and is authorized to take prompt measures.

Armour's Trip to Yucatan.
NEW YORK, Dec. 15.—Allison V. Armour, whose projected trip to Yucatan in the interest of science has aroused much interest, will depart upon his yacht, the Ituna, today or tomorrow, with a chosen party of scientists, for Central America. The Field Columbian museum of Chicago will be the beneficiary of the expedition.

Killed a Negro Prowler.
BALTIMORE, Dec. 15.—A daughter of Mr. Thomas M. Jackson, residing near Bay View, Cecil county, shot and killed an unknown negro prowler who was trying to break into the house.

CREEDON SUSPENDED.

His Testimony Before the Lexow Committee Caused It.

THE SENATORS VERY INDIGNANT.

Police Commissioner Martin and Superintendent Byrnes Called and Agreed to Try and Have the Old Captain Reinstated—Croker Refuses to Talk.

NEW YORK, Dec. 15.—The confession of Police Captain Creedon before the Lexow committee, that he paid $15,000 to secure his captaincy, resulted in his suspension from the force by the board of police commissioners on recommendation of Superintendent Byrnes, who was instructed to prepare charges against him. The Lexow committee had agreed that Creedon should be granted immunity from punishment for his purchase of a captaincy, and when the action of the police commissioners became known, they, as well as Superintendent Byrnes, were subpoenaed to appear before the investigating body. Captain Creedon's confession was the biggest sensation yet brought forth by the Lexow committee. In itself, the captain's statement was merely a confirmation of testimony already elicited before the senators, but the startling facts essentially interwoven with this sensational exposure places the tint of dishonor and corruption upon men who have held some of the most responsible offices in the gift of the community. But public censure is not heaped on Creedon's head. He had served in the local police department for 30 years with honor and distinction. He is a war-scarred veteran whose record shows that in 23 engagements of the civil war he risked his life for his country. The captain's fault is forgotten by the popular mind in sympathy for his present trying position and respect for his past record.

John W. Reppenhagen testified that he handled the money. He was given the money, and in turn he turned over $10,000 of it to "Honest" John Martin for the benefit of Police Commissioner Voorhis now a police justice. He kept the remaining $5,000 for himself. He was the go-between. Reppenhagen swore that Voorhis lied if he said he did not get the money.

When Mr. Goff learned of Captain Creedon's suspension, the committee became excited. "Subpoena all the commissioners," yelled Senator Bradley. "The subpoenas were issued."

"It looks as though the men who tell the truth are to be suspended by the police board," said Senator O'Connor, angrily. "It is abominable." Was Chairman Lexow's verdict. Every one spoke at once. Indignation prevailed.

The subpoena servers soon performed their work, and Commissioner Martin (not the Martin implicated) assumed the witness stand. He had not known that the committee were desirous of retaining Captain Creedon, or he would have done otherwise. He had voted for Creedon's suspension on the recommendation of Superintendent Byrnes.

Commissioner Martin said he was desirous of working in harmony with the committee in purifying the police department. He promised he would do all in his power to restore Captain Creedon.

Then there was more applause. It was increased by the appearance of Superintendent Byrnes. He said that Creedon's case was different from that of other accused police captains. When Creedon was appointed he swore that he had paid no money to secure the appointment. The superintendent had recommended the suspension because of Creedon's perjury and because Creedon had acknowledged his guilt before the committee. But Mr. Byrnes also promised to do all in his power to obtain Captain Creedon's restoration.

The audience applauded the superintendent. The committee's adjournment till Tuesday only adds fuel for the anxious speculation which is being indulged in as to the next step in this startling exposure.

Another feature which was generally discussed on the streets was Mr. Goff's invitation to Richard Croker to appear before the committee and deny the charges made against him. Mr. Goff said that, inasmuch as the testimony of Mr. Moran, the Brooklyn tugowner, implicated Mr. Croker in constructive extortion, the latter was invited to take the witness stand and make any explanation he might desire of Moran's allegations.

Mr. Croker did not respond.

"I have nothing to say to this," was the only reply Mr. Croker made to all queries.

A Big Coal Organization.

CHARLESTON, W. Va., Dec. 15.—The Kanawha and New River Coal and Coke company, chartered a few weeks ago with $1,500,000 capital for the purpose of distributing and apportioning the entire output of the Kanawha and New River coal fields, and fixing the price and rates, has met and organized. J. T. Dickinson was elected president and J. Q. Dickinson secretary and treasurer. The concern includes in its membership 90 per cent of the New River and Kanawha production.

Tomorrow Is Peace Sunday.

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 15.—The Christian Arbitration and Peace society have called the attention of pastors, Sunday school superintendents and teachers throughout the country to Peace Sunday, which is tomorrow. This anniversary was inaugurated by the peace congress, and is being more and more faithfully observed in England and America.

Gen. Josiah Porter Dead.

NEW YORK, Dec. 15.—Adjutant General Josiah Porter is dead. The funeral will probably be a military one. General Porter's death is the outcome of an apoplectic seizure with which he was stricken at the Seventh regiment banquet at Jaeger's last Wednesday.

Elected a President.

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 15.—The board of managers of the Lehigh Coal and Navigation company met in special session at the company's office in this city, and elected Calvin Pardee of Philadelphia as president to succeed the late E. E. Leisenring.

WARRANTS FOR CONTRACTORS.

Some Sensational Testimony in the Cleveland School Buildings' Scandal.

CLEVELAND, Dec. 15.—Some sensational testimony was brought out at the investigation into the frauds practiced by contractors in the erection of new school buildings. Several bricklayers who worked on a number of the buildings while under course of construction, testified that they had been instructed by contractors to build hollow walls and fill them in with all sorts of rubbish.

The school authorities, fearing that the contractors implicated in the fraudulent work would leave the city, swore out warrants for the arrest of certain contractors and officers were started out to take them into custody.

One of the mason contractors, Julius P. Fierchow, has since been arrested on a warrant, charging him with violating a statute which makes dishonest work on public buildings a criminal offense.

A Badly Wanted Groom.

SOUTH CHARLESTON, O., Dec. 15.—The man Ashley, who married Miss Graham here a short time ago, seems a much-wanted man by the authorities of Deland, Fla. A letter received by Marshal Buffenbarger from Sheriff Kurtz of that place states that Ashley came there one year ago in a bad pecuniary plight, and was employed by Adam Covell of New York, who treated him kindly, and was repaid for his gratitude by Ashley getting away with a good deal of money. Sheriff Kurtz says that no expense will be spared for his capture. The last heard from of Ashley was a letter written at El Paso, Tex.

A New Bank Organized.

UPPER SANDUSKY, O., Dec. 15.—A new bank has been organized here, and will be known as the Commercial bank. It will occupy the stand of the old Wyandot County bank, which went under during the panic. The following is the organization: President, T. E. Beery of this city; vice president, John R. Layton of this city; cashier, Mark Cook of Centerville; assistant cashier, E. A. Gordon; directors, W. H. Carlisle, banker, of Mt. Gilead; M. Burr Tallmage, banker, of Centerville; W. C. Fullington, banker, of Marysville, O.; and Mrs. Lambert of Mt. Gilead. Capital, $300,000.

Hardware Men Elect Officers.

CLEVELAND, Dec. 15.—The newly-organized National Hardware Dealers' association elected officers as follows: President, W. W. Supplee, Philadelphia; first vice president, John Altung, Chicago; second vice president, A. D. Langstaff, Memphis; executive committee, S. N. Bigsloe, Boston; H. H. Bishop, Cleveland; Frank Schlapke, St. Louis; F. Barker, Elmira, N. Y.; E. C. Fritzlaff, Milwaukee; and W. P. Smith, Knoxville. The place for holding the next convention was then arranged, Pittsburg being selected.

Has Sued the Government.

TOLEDO, Dec. 15.—Frank J. Cheney, an extensive medicine manufacturer of this city, has brought suit against the United States to recover $10,000 which he claims is due him for rebates on taxes paid on alcohol, as provided in section 61 of the new tariff bill. Mr. Cheney says he has endeavored to have the alcohol used in his medicines properly inspected, in order to receive the rebate, but that he has been refused recognition by the revenue department.

The Receivers Discharged.

CINCINNATI, Dec. 15.—Upon motion of the attorneys for the receivers, Judge Taft of the United States district court made an order discharging E. F. C. Young and George Weaver Loper as receivers of the National Cordage company in Ohio. A bid for the entire property of the company at $5,000,000 has been received and accepted and the business will go on under a new company.

Captures a Convention.

SPRINGFIELD, O., Dec. 15.—Springfield has captured the next Prohibition state convention. At the meeting of the state central committee it was decided to hold the convention in this city in June. About 500 persons are expected to attend, and special preparations for the comfort of delegates will be made by Springfield citizens.

A Mob Can't Get Him Now.

COLUMBUS, Dec. 15.—Sheriff Cook of Fayette county has lodged in the penitentiary, on a ten years' sentence, James Scott, colored, whose 14-year-old daughter was his victim. Scott was in jail at Washington, C. H. O., at the time of the Dolby riot, and would have shared Dolby's fate if the mob had secured entrance to the prison.

Says He Threw the Brick.

CIRCLEVILLE, O., Dec. 15.—Noble Carmine has been arrested and confessed to having made the brutal assault on Wesley Griffith with a brick. He was bound over to court in the sum of $200, which he was unable to furnish, and was sent to jail. Griffith was badly maimed by the flying brick. No cause for the assault is known.

Refused Habeas Corpus.

CINCINNATI, Dec. 15.—W. H. Harris, charged by New York officials with grand larceny, has been refused release by habeas corpus in Judge Kuntler's court. New York officers have a requisition for him from the governor of New York, and have gone to present it to Governor McKinley at Columbus.

Shot by an Officer.

NORWALK, O., Dec. 15.—John Howarth, a colored man, was arrested by Watchman James Farr at Monckeville on a charge of housebreaking. He attempted to escape, when Farr shot him, the bullet taking effect in his side near the heart.

Owen Married Again.

MR. VERNON, O., Dec. 15.—Hon. Frank V. Owen, author of the Owen liquor law, has been married to Miss Bessie M. Johnson. Mr. Owen was divorced a few weeks ago from Julia A. Owen.

Shot a Large Black Bear.

BETHLEHEM, Pa., Dec. 15.—I. T. Benner of the South Bethlehem National bank; Stewart Evans and Wilson and Elmer Luckenbach of Bethlehem, have returned from a hunting trip to the Pocono mountains. The party was away three days. They shot a large black bear and a good-sized deer.

GOMPERS GOT ANGRY.

A Hot Debate In the Federation Convention.

SOCIALIST PLANK THE CAUSE.

A Delegate Charges Labor Officials With Using Their Positions For Political Exploitation—P. J. McGuire Refers to a Charge Against John Burns.

DENVER, Dec. 15.—A red-hot fight developed in the American Federation of Labor convention over the political program, which is as follows:

"Whereas, the trade unionists of Great Britain have by the light of experience and the logic of progress, adopted the principle of independent labor politics as an auxiliary to their economic action, and

"Whereas, such action has resulted in the most gratifying success, and

"Whereas, such independent labor politics are based upon the following programme, to wit: First, compulsory education; second, direct legislation; third, a legal 8-hour workday; fourth, sanitary inspection of workshops, mines and homes; fifth, liability of employers for injury to health, body or life; sixth, the abolition of contract system in all public work; seventh, the abolition of the sweating system; eighth, the municipal ownership of street cars and gas and electric plants for public distribution of light, heat and power; ninth, the nationalization of telegraphs, telephones, railroads and mines; tenth, ownership by the people of all means of production and distribution; eleventh, the principle of referendum in all legislation. Therefore be it

"Resolved, That the convention hereby endorse this political action of our British comrades, and, therefore, be it

"Resolved, That this programme and basis of a political labor movement, be and is hereby submitted for the consideration of the labor organizations of America, with the request that their delegates to the next annual convention of the American Federation of Labor be instructed on this most important subject."

The preamble was stigmatized by Mr. Strasser as a bold misrepresentation. This brought T. J. Morgan, author of the platform, to his feet with a very spirited rejoinder. Mr. Strasser moved that the preamble be stricken out. It was claimed that the labor unions of England had no political organization. John F. Tobin of the Boot and Shoe Workers stirred up a storm when he asserted that there was a political organization among laboring men, and that presidents and secretaries and other officers of the labor organizations use their positions to secure political election and appointment. Objection came from a dozen men, including President Gompers, Secretary Evans and other federal officers. Mr. Tobin remarked that such a show of feeling was all the proof he wanted that his shot had hit. Mr. Morgan and others. When he had finished President Gompers took the floor and denounced as a lie the general charge which included him and defied Mr. Tobin, Mr. Morgan or any other delegate to point to a vulnerable place in his career as to honesty. He charged that it was a cowardly covert attack upon organized labor. He was mad clear through and his words were very bitter.

Others followed in a milder vein, but the display during the ten minutes occupied by Tobin and Gompers showed the nature of the fight on the tapis between the supporters and opponents of the socialist plank.

P. J. McGuire denied the action of the English laboring men politically was based upon the plank given in the "political programme." He read an extract from an English newspaper, which charged John Burns with acting as a delegate for the Liberal party. He denounced the attempt to force the federation into a political party, each member had been assured upon joining his union that its pledges should not conflict with his political views in any particular. He said the 1,200 labor leaders of Great Britain, who are holding national offices, are greatly outnumbered by their American brethren in similar positions.

The previous question was called for, and the rollcall resulted in the striking out of the preamble by a vote of 1,365 to 801.

When the famous plank 10 came up the tug of war was reached. Mr. Strasser of New Jersey stated he proposed to make the author of the plank declare himself. He offered as an amendment the addition of the words, "By means of confiscation without compensation."

T. J. Morgan, author of the plank, seconded the amendment. A McCraith of Boston offered a substitute as follows: "The abolition of the monopoly system of land-holding and the substituting therefore a title occupancy and use only."

Thomas J. Morgan presented a chart to show the relative numbers and wealth of workingmen, business men, capitalists and millionaires. His speech was a vigorous advocacy of socialism. A five minute limit has been made, but when his time was up half a dozen men volunteered to give him their time and he spoke half an hour. He denied the charge made in President Gompers' report that the socialist idea was smuggled into the programme.

He said, "We have as our allies in the socialist movement all kinds of laboring machinery and we have the millionaires. They put Debs in jail today. I am glad of it. That is the kind of work that will make you vote to put men on the bench, who will render such decisions."

Mr. Strasser followed Mr. Morgan in opposition to socialism. He said socialism was not progressive. The socialist growth in Germany was not socialism, he said, but the rise of democracy. Others spoke at length and the convention adjourned with the question still under consideration.

Lawyer Calls a Meeting.

LOUISVILLE, Dec. 15.—Commander-in-Chief Lawlor of the Grand Army of the Republic has called a meeting of the executive committee of the council of administration, to be held here Tuesday, to arrange for the grand national encampment.

LOCAL BREVITIES

The Lady Maccabees initiated five members last evening and received three applications.

The little child of Mr. and Mrs. Bowles, 277 Third street, is ill with an attack of bronchitis.

The First Spiritual society meets at 7:30 p. m., Sunday in Ferguson & Hill hall. All are invited.

James McClane's little child is seriously ill at the family residence on Washington street. Congestion of the stomach and bowels is the cause of illness.

The population was increased yesterday by the families of J. S. Wilson, from McKeesport, and D. Johnston, from Vanport. The increase is so marked that houses are becoming very scarce.

The plague of tramps has not been abated within the past few days and they are as numerous as ever. Seven burly fellows were seen seated around a camp fire above East End last night preparing their supper.

The meetings held last week in the First Presbyterian church proved a great blessing, being very well attended. Last Sunday 27 members were received, and during the week seven more have been added.

The rush in police court is over for the week, and Mayor Gilbert had nothing to occupy his attention this morning. The police are looking for burglars, although not a suspicion of whether they are after the new gang can be heard.

Mrs. Thomas McCann, of Sixth street, has been quite ill with catarrh of the stomach for some days. Her sister, a resident of Wellsburg, West Virginia, is in attendance. The attending physician does not fear serious consequences.

Several new doctors have located in this city recently, and two more are expected soon. The list of physicians now numbers between 25 and 30 but the opinion among the incoming medics seems to be that there is always room for one more.

When the Iron Queen went down the river last night the boat was loaded with one of the best cargoes carried by the packet since its first trip. The freight taken on here was made up of 135 packages of ware, the largest shipment by river these many months.

Squire Travis will have his hands full Monday afternoon looking after the boarding house suits brought by Misses Gamble and Bangor against gay young men who are said to have secured food and lodging during the strike. The cases are five in number, and will come up for trial at city hall at 2 o'clock.

J. T. McBrier, well known in this city as a former resident, was here for a few hours calling on friends yesterday. He was on his way to his home in Pennsylvania from Cumberland where he has been employed in the Chelsea pottery which has shut down for the holidays. The pottery has sold a vast amount of ware since the strike ended.

The Ladies' auxiliary of the Young Men's Christian association will serve delicious ice cream and most palatable cake tonight, and you should not fail to be present with your lady friends. The reading room will be made very attractive for you. Take your pocket-book along, and buy a Christmas present for your sweetheart. Admission free. Help the ladies along.

Christmas marriages will be plentiful, according to the estimate placed upon the number by those who keep a particular eye open for matrimonial affairs in the city. One of the squires has delivered one license and ordered two more, which promise to develop about Christmas, while two young men of Seventh street and one who resides on Third are on the wedding list.

The presence of burglars has caused Chief Gill to put forth his utmost efforts in preventing any further robberies, and to this end the force was on all of last night and kept an eye on the business portion of the city. If an extra force would accomplish the desired result, then the chief should be allowed a few more men, as the burglars should be taught a needed lesson.

The grievance of a young man of this city is said to have been so great because of his trouble with a lady friend that he actually challenged a young man to a duel because he escorted her to the dance in the rink on Monday night last. The rival has had a big lot of fun out of the matter by showing the challenge to his friends, and explaining that the author was evidently a dime novel fiend.

The county commissioners have agreed to look after the interests of the local militia, and will build lockers in the armory, as well as providing carpet and such other furnishings as are needed. They will in all probability pay a visit here soon. Company E has engaged the rink again for drill purposes, and will meet there for drill next Tuesday night. The regular meeting will be held in the armory Monday evening.

THE OLD RELIABLE.

A Pharmacy Which Has Won Popularity With the Masses.

Any establishment which deals fairly and squarely with the public, giving honest goods in return for honest money, is sure to eventually win public favor and public trust. This is just as sure as that two and two make four. Back these qualifications up with ordinary business skill, and let the proprietor or proprietors of said business house back this up with energy and strict attention to business, and rest satisfied with legitimate returns on investment, and the pathway to prosperity and success is assured.

Such an establishment as is mapped out above is that of ALVIN H. BULGER, the leading pharmacist of this section, who has won, and justly so, an enviable popularity on account of his skill in preparing prescriptions; who thoroughly understands the drug business, in all its varied ramifications and details; who has occupied his present location, corner West Market and Sixth streets, for the past seven years, and who has catered so skillfully and carefully to the people that he occupies a position in the front rank of his profession, a position in which he is firmly entrenched, and which he intends to retain, through the instrumentalities of first class, carefully selected drugs, strict attention to business, skill in the preparation of prescriptions entrusted to his care, and courteous treatment of any and all patrons.

The above characteristics have held sway and control at BULGER'S for these many years, and they account for the splendid business which the establishment has builded up.

While prescriptions are made a special feature at this fine pharmacy, the proprietor does not neglect other branches, such as fancy articles suitable for Christmas presents, elegant perfumery, choicest of toilet articles, fine grades of stationery, best brands of cigars, and, in fact, anything and everything incidental to a first-class drug store.

Potters' sponges have always been one of the specialties at BULGER'S, and the workmen throughout our pottery city are fully cognizant of this fact, and know just where to apply when they are in need of sponges used in their business.

BULGER wishes you a merry Christmas and a happy New Year, and extends to you a cordial invitation to visit his fine establishment when seeking holiday presents, or when in need of his services in a professional line.

Frank Carpenter in Japan.

Mr. Carpenter will tell in the Grand next Wednesday evening some of the things he knows about Japan, and his lecture will be illustrated with slides made by the best photographers in the world. His subject is "The Japanese of 1894," and Mr. Carpenter having traversed almost every part of the empire is the one man to tell their condition. The proceeds of the lecture will go to the Young Woman's home of the Woman's Christian Temperance union, the Elks having so decided.

Harry MacKenzie.

The artist and photographer, doing business in the First National bank building, has his hands full in catering to the requests and orders of well pleased patrons. His pictures of the babies are gems of art, and the mothers of our city should not fail to take their little ones to him. The photos of older persons cannot be equalled in East Liverpool. Take the elevator and step off into the studio.

Go to the Y. M. C. A. rooms tonight, Ladies' Bazaar. Take your ladies.

Nice Is Doing Business.

O. D. Nice, at No. 162 Sixth street, is doing the business of our city in custom made shoes for ladies and gentlemen, while his repairing makes old footwear look as nice as new. Such is the demand for his work that he has been compelled to double his working force. When you want ease, comfort and fashion combined in your footwear, you will call on O. D. Nice.

Ladies' Bazaar, Y. M. C. A. rooms. Take your lady friends tonight.

Explanatory.

In yesterday's issue, in the account of The People's Store, which was published on our first page, the name of Mr. Anthony Wynn failed to appear. Mr. Wynn has been employed as basement clerk for a long time by Mr. Henry E. Porter, and is one of his most trusted employees.

Go to the Y. M. C. A. tonight. Success of the Maccabees.

Mr. Burt, who is here in the interest of the Maccabees, has been preeminently successful in his work, and yesterday succeeded in adding 12 to the list already secured. This makes 40 for the week, rough as it has been, and Mr. Burt is convinced that he will largely increase the membership of the local tent before the end of next week.

THE CITY OF NIZAM.

Where Turk, Hindoo and Afghan Jostle the Mohammedan and Hadji.

In the densely thronged streets of Nizam the scantily clad negro, with a scarlet "tarboosh" perched on his woolly locks, jostles the dignified Mohammedan, true lord of the soil, in snowy turban and flowing robes; the long haired, eagle featured Afghan strides alongside of the fanatical Hadji, whose green headgear shows that he has accomplished the sacred pilgrimage to distant Mecca, and martial Rajputs dash past on fiery chargers, dispersing a gossiping group of Sidis leaning like ebony statues against the marble basin of the great fountain which faces the Char Minar.

A devout son of the prophet laves his face in the silver spray before spreading out his prayer carpet for the noonday orisons, as the turbaned head of the muazzin appears on the gallery of every minaret, and the cry "La Allah il Allah" rings across the city. A Rohilla chieftain, with a jeweled dagger thrust through a dark blue caftan, swings the heavy blunderbuss described in native parlance as "the tiger's child" and pushes aside a barbaric looking Pathan, with a leather shield, apparently sported as the insignia of full dress, like a sword in a ballroom.

Olive skinned Hindoos glide stealthily through the crowd, as though shrinking from contact with the motley assemblage. Solemn Turks sit cross legged beside their coffee stalls, and keen faced Parsees, with sloping oilskin hats, are engrossed with the arithmetical calculations so successfully mastered by these astute descendants of the ancient Persians, in their modern character of "the Jews of India."

A few Parsee ladies, with silken "saris" of cherry color lilac or apple green, thrown back from white headbands inscribed with sacred texts, drive through the bazaars, but the absence of women from the crowded thoroughfares results from the cloistered seclusion of the "purdah," which imprisons the majority of the fair sex.—All the Year Round.

Who Made This Neat Puzzle?

We should like to know the name of the author of the following puzzle and anagram:

A — old woman with — intent Put on her — and to market went —, said she, "give me, I pray, The wherewithal to — this day."
Each of the blanks is to be filled with a word of four letters, and the same letters occur in each of the five different words. These words are consecutively "vile," "evil," "veil," "Levi" and "live." We repeat that we are curious to learn the name of the author of this ingenious anagram puzzle.—Chicago Record.

PERSONAL MENTION.

—Reverend Rinehart went to Baden, Pa., this morning.
—T. B. Anderson went down the river this morning on business.
—Rev. L. A. Kaufman, of the floating Bethel, went to Smithville this morning.
—Mrs. R. L. Edmondson, accompanied by her mother, Mrs. T. M. Berry, left this morning for a visit in Lancaster.
—Mr. James Watt, of Beaver county, Pa., a resident of Ohioville, was in East Liverpool today transacting business.
—Mr. J. S. Burt went to Hudson this afternoon where he will be engaged for a few days next week. He will return here on Wednesday.
—Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Rhoads, of Enon, Pa., who have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Frank Foutts, of Sixth street, returned home this morning.

Knight of the Maccabees

The state commander writes from Lincoln, Neb., as follows: "After trying other medicines for what seemed to be a very obstinate cough in our two children we tried Dr. King's New Discovery and at the end of two days the cough entirely left them. We will not be without it hereafter, as our experience prove that it cures where all other remedies fail."—Signed F. W. Stevens, state com.—Why not give this great medicine a trial, as it is guaranteed and trial bottles are free at T. L. Potts' drug store. Regular size 50c and $1.00.

A Sumptuous Supper.

The ladies of the First Presbyterian church will serve a hot turkey supper in the dining room of the church next Thursday evening from 5:30 until 7 o'clock. In the evening cream and cake will also be given to all who call. An excellent musical program has been prepared for the event, and an enjoyable evening is promised.
Go to T. B. Murphy & Son for fancy smoked halibut, English bloaters, smoked herring, limburger cheese, sweet and sour mixed pickles, almonds, macaroons, Sears' celebrated saltine crackers, fancy baidwin and eggflower apples, country butter, and eggs, fancy cranberries, Crane Bros' maple syrup, kilndried sweet potatoes, and sauer kraut.

Cold Weather Suggestions.

As cold weather approaches women try to devise means for preventing hands and lips from chapping. An excellent remedy to prevent chapping is cold cream. A manicure says that it whitens the skin more than any preparation. It has taken the place of the old time remedy—mutton suet. It should be well rubbed into the skin, and gloves, preferably white, slipped on. The palms of the gloves should be slit in several places to allow the air and prevent cramps of the muscles, and the finger tips clipped off. Vaseline should never be allowed to touch the hands. It turns the skin yellow and leaves a stain on the nails that is hard to clear away.

In winter cold water should be used sparingly. Its action roughens the skin unpleasantly. Tepid water, with a very few drops of household ammonia and a good lather of castile or borax soap, is advisable. If the hands are inclined to redness, the trouble lies in the way of circulation, and slight gymnastics will relieve it.

A Case of Step-love.

The girl with the level brows was talking to the man with the Roman nose. "I don't understand you," she said coldly.

"I asked you if you thought my love would induce?"
"No, it is impossible. You are not my ideal."

"I don't want to be. Please don't interrupt me again. I merely wanted to know if my earnest, devoted love would?"
"It would not. You are too old. Besides, as I said before, you are not my ideal."

"Hang ideals! I want to marry your mother and be your stepfather. Now, do you understand?"—Detroit Free Press.

Betrayed by a Pin.

No matter how masculine a woman may become, there is always some little womanly weakness about her that invariably betrays her. She may wear real men's shoes and tie her own tie, but her manly hat has a hatpin through it. Her coat may be made by a real tailor, but it is tight at the waist. She is still and always the woman. Now, for example, in Tim Murphy's play, "Alimony," there was one of the dapperest young things you ever saw. She was a real little gentleman, from the crown of her billycock hat to the sole of her hunting boots. Her corduroys were real corduroys, and her shirt had link sleeve buttons, but she had her high boots pinned up with safety pins. She did, and I saw them. Wasn't that the woman of it?—Washington Post.

A Vessel Given Up as Lost.

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 15.—The intense anxiety which has prevailed at this port for nearly a month past concerning the safety of the bark Carrie Heckle, which is six weeks over due on a voyage from Philadelphia to San Juan, has given place to despair, and her owners and agents have given her up for lost, with all hands, ten in number. Captain A. C. Germann, her master, was a skillful shipmaster, but no doubt the vessel encountered and foundered in the hurricane of Dec. 11, which wrought such devastation along the Southern coast.

Burglars Rob a Safe.

TERRA ALTA, W. V., Dec. 15.—Burglars entered the general store of B. F. Huggins, at Brandonville, and the safe, containing nearly $1,000, was blown open and looted and about $200 worth of goods were taken. Huggins had gotten the cash from the bank in Kingwood for the purpose, as was his custom, of cashing the pension certificates for soldiers in his neighborhood.

Bowen Knocked Out.

NEW ORLEANS, Dec. 15.—George Lavigne and Andy Bowen fought in the Auditorium club here in the presence of about 4,000 people. The purse was $3,000, divided as $2,500 to the winner and $500 to the loser. Bowen was knocked out in the 18th round.
Bowen is unconscious from the blow and may die. The Lavigne party has been arrested.

Seeley in New York.

NEW YORK, Dec. 15.—Samuel C. Seeley, late bookkeeper of the Shoe and Leather National bank of this city, is a fully-barred prisoner, in comfortable quarters, in Ludlow Street jail, having been brought here from Chicago.

A Five-Acre Skating Park.

PITTSBURGH, Dec. 15.—The Pittsburgh Athletic club finished a five-acre skating park at its grounds in the East End. The park is illuminated with electric lights.

Weather Forecast.

Fair; warmer; southwest winds.

PITH OF THE NEWS.

The engagement of gold for shipment to Europe today is $3,800,000.
Father Denza, director of the Vatican observatory at Rome, is dead.

Daniel M. Robertson, the wife murderer, was hanged at New Bedford, Mass.

The Southern Pacific Railroad company stands firm in its declaration to cut rates to New York.

The jury in the Van Leuven pension fraud case, at Dubuque, Ia., returned a verdict of guilty.

C. F. Ogles of Tilton, Ga., in a whitecap trial, made sensational charges against prominent people.

HE EMPHASIZED THE LIE.

As Told by the Sporty Man the Yarn, While Tail, Was Incomplete.

The boarders were sitting around the parlor. The landlady had just served one of her famous 6 o'clock dinners (35 cents apiece, or a quarter if you buy ten tickets at a time), and the partakers needed rest as much as anything unless it was pepsin.

The sporty young man, who had been there but a week, was telling a story about a friend of his who was in the theatrical business, advance agent or something of the kind. "It was this way," said the sporty boarder. "Jack always was quite a hand to play the horses, and that day he was particularly lucky. He went out to the track with a $100 bill. He saw the card was an easy one, and he resolved to plug it. He picked a 6 to 1 shot in the first race, and it won. Then he went on, playing every race, and when the sport was over he had won just $15,000."

The soubrette opened her eyes and whistled. The ministerial looking man who sat over in the corner said, "Why don't you go on and finish the story?"
"Finish the story?" asked the sporty boarder in surprise. "Why, what more is there to tell? What more is there to it?"

"Pshaw," said the ministerial looking man, "you know as well as I do that your friend hurried back to town and won $9,000 more before dark playing croquet."—Buffalo Express.

Mutilating Horses.

The United States Veterinary Medical association, at its thirty-first annual meeting, held in Philadelphia, adopted a resolution condemning the "docking" of horses' tails and calling attention to the fact that nature surely intended the tail as the animal's defense against the assaults of insects. There is nothing new in the announcement that the tail is a useful appendage, but those persons who are ever vigilant to avert cruelty to animals will be delighted to have the duly recorded support of such an authority as the Veterinary association. The practice of "docking" horses' tails is wholly indefensible. Some people try to justify it on the ground that it improves the horse's appearance. It does not. It simply spoils the good looks of any horse so operated upon.—Washington Star.

"The Conduct of Life."

Under this head Ralph Waldo Emerson wrote: "Tis an estimable hint I owe to a few persons of fine manners that they make behavior the very first sign of force—behavior, not performance, or talent, or, much less, wealth. While almost everybody has a suppling eye turned on events and things and other persons, a few natures are central and forever unfold, and these alone charm us. He whose word or deed you cannot predict, who answers you without any supplication in his eye, who draws his determination from within, that man rules."

A Simple Remedy.

A teacher of health culture declares that a simple remedy for removing the blood from a too active brain is to exercise the muscles of the feet. Stand firmly on the ground and then raise the heel and rest on the toe for a second. Do this for a dozen times or so in succession. It will bring a certain degree of relief after a hard day's mental work.
